26. For A Great Harvest in the days to come: For the spiritual disciplines to be seen in our example. Pray for people to engage in righteous fasting to bring God's will (Isaiah 58).

For God to have mercy on a nation that has turned away from the Lord and His ways, and political will to return to following Christ and the Bible.

Pray that leaders will seek National Repentance, Deliverance And Truth. I pray that You would set up godly men and women in positions of leadership and power in our own nation and in all the nations who exercise authority in our world today. Give them boldness to challenge those who want to to remove the principles of freedom and tolerance and establish the flawed principles that come from human wisdom.

Lord, I pray that You would guide the leaders of many nations to repent of their sins and turn to the path of peace that only comes from You. Help them to understand that the only peace that will ever be established on earth will be under the rule of the Lord Jesus Christ Himself, after Your wrath has been poured out on a Christ rejecting sinful world. Have mercy Lord. Have mercy on all the leaders of nations who do not know You. I pray that many will be saved by faith in the Lord Jesus Christ, in Whose name I pray.

Pray for pastors to take care of their physical health, and give them supernatural stamina for the work they have to do in this season.

27. For A Great Harvest in the days to come: For the message of the gospel to reach into every community in the United States of America. Pray for many local individuals stepping up to serve in the name of Christ.

For peace and healing to our divided nation, no matter what the election outcome will be.

Pray that leaders will persevere in righteousness. Pray that God will thwart efforts by local, state or federal leaders to restrict or harm people who are righteous.

Pray for pastors to courageously speak against evil. Give them words of knowledge for revelation and how to communicate to their people.

28. For A Great Harvest in the days to come: For every church to agree to reach the lost. Pray for godly unity among church leaders of different local churches so that many people will come to know Christ.

For the nation to return to the Lord and to honor/follow His ways.

Pray for our leaders: Father, we thank and praise You for the many blessings You have bestowed on our nation, blessings that we don't deserve but which You have showered on us in Your grace and mercy. But Father, we know that our country seems to have lost its way and our government seems to be spiraling out of control, and we have no one to look to but You. We pray, that You would look down on our country with pity and great mercy, and we pray that our government would be convicted of their need to turn once again to You for wisdom to govern this once great nation in a way that is honoring to Your name.

We pray for each of our leaders and lift them up to You, praying that they would look to You both individually and collectively, so that our nation may be governed according to Your plans and purposes. But if as a nation we are to face Your displeasure because we have turned from Your statutes and disobeyed Your laws, we pray that You would be merciful, and we ask that in Your grace many of our leaders would cry to You for salvation and help. This we ask for the sake of our Savior, Jesus Christ our Lord.

Pray for pastors to fast from anything that would distract them from the mission of the Church in this time.

29. For A Great Harvest in the days to come: For the heart of every believer to be for the lost to find Jesus. Pray for godly unity among church leaders of different local churches so that many people will come to know Christ.

For God's purposes to be accomplished through the election campaign.

Pray that leaders that they will listen to the Holy Spirit and courageously follow the Holy Spirit's guidance, even if it costs them politically.

Pray for pastors to be laboring in prayer for the souls of men and the soul of America in this season.

30. For A Great Harvest in the days to come: Praise God for what He has done through September. Pray for godly people to do their civic duty and vote, understanding the gravity of this hour.

For the candidates that God truly wants to be in office to be elected, and that all people in our nation will accept the outcome.

Pray that leaders will be elected in November who are the people God wants in office, that nothing will hinder these men and women from prevailing.

Pray for pastors to lead with humility and repentance for their own sins, before God and men.
